

BART HANSEN
CELLARMASTER

Cellar master Bart Hansen is actively involved in all the cellar and wine process work at the Lasseter Family Winery. His fine palate and tasting experience are valuable assets when it comes time to create Lasseter Family Winery's distinctive French-style blends.

Bart got his first wine job at Kenwood at the age of 20, working crush – and eventually became Barrel Cellar Master. Bart later moved down the road to the Benziger Winery where his efforts earned him the title Associate Winemaker. Bart started helping Lasseter Family Winemaker Julia Iantosca in 2007.
