SONOMA VALLEY ESTATE GROWN

At Lasseter, we value loyalty, dedication, innovation, instigation, and we love surprises! We devote ourselves to crafting small lots of exceptional blends, and can't wait for the "Zut Alors" moments when our winemaking team discovers, creates and unveils the perfect wine for this label.

This vintage of Zut Alors is a Sauvignon Blanc that fills your nose with scents of lemon peel, honeysuckle, jasmine and orange blossom. The palate has great minerality, and beautiful fruit notes of apple and pear. The mouthfeel is rich and complex, perhaps a tad decadent, with just enough lush acidity to balance the weight. Zut Alors, always a "pleasant surprise!"

TRINITY RIDGE VINEYARDS

The 2019 vintage of Zut Alors features Estate grown Sauvignon Blanc from the Moon Mountain District. These high elevation vineyards situated above the Sonoma Valley, and the fog line, along the western slope of the Mayacamas Mountain range, are rooted in volcanic soils, with rocky slopes and well drained soils. The terroir of the site results in wines with classic acidity, minerality and structure that display a lovely depth of flavor. The grapes were hand-harvested in the cool, early morning then pressed immediately upon arrival at the winery. We employed traditional winemaking techniques to produce this wine, fermenting in French Oak barrels, and aging the wine for nine months sur lie with frequent battonage in an old world style.
